

Privacy Policy

Murrumbidgee Irrigation and your Application for Employment

Thank you for applying for a position with Murrumbidgee Irrigation.

This document explains how our Company will control your personal information in the recruitment process.

Information is collected from you in a number of ways. Most of the information is supplied directly from you for our Company to understand your qualifications, experience and suitability for employment in the position you have applied for. As part of the recruitment process, nominated referees may be contacted.

If we make an offer of employment to you, the information you have provided will form part of your personnel record. If we do not make an offer we will securely dispose of the information you have submitted or ask for your consent to retain it for a period of 6 months in the event that another position becomes available.

Please indicate below if you would like us to retain information about you on our systems so that you can be contacted about employment opportunities within the next 6 months

Yes, if I am not successful in my application for this position please keep my employment details in case other employment opportunities come up at Murrumbidgee Irrigation within 6 months

No, if I am not successful in my application for this position please do not consider me for any future positions Murrumbidgee Irrigation

If you want to know more about our privacy practices, or find out what information we have concerning you, please contact the Human Resources Officer.

I have read and understand Murrumbidgee Irrigation's Privacy Policy in relation to the recruitment process as stated above.

Name

Signature

Date