NEW CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER FOR MI

Murrumbidgee Irrigation (MI) has announced the appointment of Raveen Jaduram as its new Chief Executive Officer.

MI Chairman, Gillian Kirkup, congratulated Mr Jaduram who will commence with MI at a date to be confirmed shortly.

Mr Jaduram has held several operational and chief executive roles in the New Zealand water industry including senior positions at Watercare Services Limited, Manukau Water Limited and Metro Water.

His most recent role was Chief Operating Officer at Watercare Services Limited, the fifth largest infrastructure company in New Zealand serving over 1.4 million customers.

“With over 24 years of experience within the New Zealand water industry, Mr Jaduram brings with him extensive leadership and risk management skills,” said Mrs Kirkup.

“With honours and masters degrees in civil engineering from the University of Auckland, Mr Jaduram also brings with him outstanding engineering expertise and knowledge which will be invaluable to the company.

“His extensive change management skills will ensure we are able to adapt and respond to the rapid changes occurring within our irrigation industry,” said Mrs Kirkup.

“I look forward to welcoming Mr Jaduram and his family to the MIA.”
