Drainage Use Rules

The Drainage Use Rules – effective 1 July 2026 - do not materially change customer obligations. The only substantive change is a refinement to the Company’s discretion in relation to drainage infrastructure, which now requires the Company to act reasonably. Additional appendices have also been included to improve clarity of drainage inlet requirements.

Summary Table

Section / Clause	Old wording	New wording	Change type	Customer impact
Table of contents	Rules only	Includes Appendix A & B	New content	No impact
Clause 4.5 – inlet sizing	“300mm / 225mm diameter”	Same + reference to diagrams (Appendix A/B)	Clarification	Improves interpretation
Clause 4.6 – discretion	“The Company may, at its absolute discretion...”	“The Company may determine... provided that the Company acts reasonably”	Substantive wording change	Constrains discretion
Appendices	Not included	Appendix A & B (DN300 / DN225 inlet diagrams)	New content	Improves clarity

Development Rules

The Development Rules – effective 1 July 2026 - do not introduce any changes to customer obligations. The update primarily improves document structure and clarity, including the addition of diagrams to assist interpretation of existing requirements.

Summary Table

Section / Clause	Old wording	New wording	Change type	Customer impact
Table of contents	Annexure A only	Appendix A–D included	New content	No impact
Annexures / Appendices	Annexure A (Diagram 1–2)	Appendix A–D (Diagram 1–4)	Terminology + new content	Improves interpretation
Diagrams	Diagram 1–2 only	Diagram 1–4 (additional diagrams added)	New content	Improves interpretation
